

Circ.: e. 51,095

Front Page Edit Page Other Page

CPYRGHT

Date: MAY 2 1960

UN President To Open Conference

MONTREY — The president of the 13th United Nations' General Assembly, Dr. Charles Malik of Lebanon, will address the World Affairs Council of Northern California Saturday at the 14th annual conference of the World Affairs Council to be held at Asilomar on the Monterey Peninsula.

Dr. Malik will speak on "The Dialectic of Co-Existence."

Other Conference speakers and their topics include: Walter W. Rostow, economist from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, "Their Majesties, the King and Queen of Nepal"; Richard C. Hottelet, CBS news correspondent, "Problems of Berlin and Future of Germany"; Dean Rusk, president of the Rockefeller Foundation, "Requirements for Leadership in the Free World"; Lyman Kirkpatrick, inspector general of the Central Intelligence Agency, "Competitive Co-Existence and Africa"; and Stuart Hanson, assistant to the director of Radio Free Europe, "Propaganda and Co-Existence."

Other speakers and topics are, Col. William Kintner, deputy director of the for-sign policy research institute at the University of Pennsylvania, "Military Posture and Strategy;" and Paul Bryan, party leader for the Conservative party of Great Britain, "A British View."

Dr. Robert Gordon Sproul, former president of the University of California, will give the opening and closing remarks.